

Abivax receives “Capital Market Transaction of the Year Award” at the European Mediscience Awards 2023

June 15, 2023

The award recognizes a significant capital market transaction in the biotech sector

Abivax received the award for its oversubscribed EUR 130M cross-over financing at market price with top-tier US and European Biotech investors in February 2023

PARIS, France, June 15, 2023 – Abivax (Euronext Paris: FR0012333284 – ABVX), a Phase 3 clinical-stage biotechnology company focused on developing therapeutics that modulate the immune system to treat patients with chronic inflammatory diseases, announces today that it received the “Capital Market Transaction of the Year Award” at the European Mediscience Awards 2023. This award recognizes a significant capital market transaction taking into account the amount of money raised, stock price performance and the quality of the share register.

Abivax received the award for its EUR 130M oversubscribed capital increase at market price in February 2023. The financing round was led by TCGX, with participation from existing investors such as Sofinnova Partners, Invus, Deep Track Capital, Venrock Healthcare Capital Partners, as well as from new investors such as Great Point Partners LLC, Deerfield Management Company, Commodore Capital, Samsara BioCapital, Boxer Capital and others.

Didier Blondel, CFO of Abivax, said: “We are proud and feel honored to receive the “Capital Market Transaction of the Year Award” at the European Mediscience Awards 2023. We were very pleased that Abivax could attract top-tier U.S. and European biotech investors for this transaction which, we believe, is a valuable recognition of the remarkable clinical achievements with obefazimod during the past months and years. The Company’s strategic priority at present is the completion of our global Phase 3 clinical program of obefazimod for the treatment of ulcerative colitis. The entire Abivax team stays committed to bringing obefazimod to the market for the benefit of the many UC patients in need of safe and long-term efficient treatment options.”
